notes 6

1. mkdir

- definition: creates a new directory or multiple directories.
- usage/formula: mkdir [options] directory_name
- examples: mkdir new_folder mkdir -p parent_dir/sub_dir

2. touch

- definition: creates an empty file or updates the access and modification timestamps of an existing file.
- usage/formula: touch [options] file_name
- examples: touch file.txt touch file1.txt file2.txt

3. rm

- definition: removes (deletes) files or directories from the file system.
- usage/formula: rm [options] file_name
- examples: rm file.txt rm -r folder_name

4. cp

- definition: copies files or directories from a source location to a destination location.
- usage/formula: cp [options] source destination
- examples: cp file.txt backup.txt cp -r folder/ backup_folder/

5. mv

- definition: moves or renames files and directories.
- usage/formula: mv [options] source destination
- examples: mv old_name.txt new_name.txt mv file.txt /path/to/destination/